

Source C suggests that the French were to blame for the economic problems of 1923. How do you know? (4)

This is a German cartoon from 1923. The woman represents the French army. The words at the bottom say, "Hands off the Ruhr."

The source suggests that the French were to blame because... This is accurate as...

Another way this source show the French were to blame is by... I know this is accurate as ...

How useful is this source for understanding the impact of the invasion of the Ruhr on Germany?

'You do not force me' -

A German worker faces French soldiers. A propaganda poster of passive resistance of the Ruhr valley against the French occupation

Explain how the Treaty of Versailles was a threat to the Weimar Republic.