

Source C suggests that the Constitution was the reason for the failure of the Weimar government. How do you know?
(4)

'The Weimar Constitution tried to set up a genuinely democratic government. However, politicians had little experience of making democracy work, and many Germans had little enthusiasm for democracy. Some historians have argued that weaknesses in the Constitution made it harder for the Weimar Republic to cope with all the difficulties it had to face.'

The source suggests that the constitution was to blame because... This is accurate as...

Another way this source show the constitution was the cause of failure is by... I know this is accurate as ...

GCSE QUESTION

Describe two problems the Weimar Government faced in 1918 4 marks

Explain the importance of the political instabilities of the Weimar Republic